OFFICE OF LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL

Wednesday - 23 August 1961

5X1 _[I. Talked with William Darden concerning whose name was raised by Senator Eussell at our Ī	at the request of the Department of Justice to determine if he had	25X1 any useble potential for the Agency. Apparently Barden was aware of this and had talked with him and the North Carolina attorney.
ΓΑΤ	aise. I emplained that had been convicted	25X1 on two separate matters in Chicago and Pitteburgh and after a therough review of his background and alleged capabilities, we did not see any probability of our utilizing him. Darden said this was perfectly satisfactory and they would need no more information on the case.
